"We represent people who have been injured or wronged by a corporation, insurance company or the government, and our goal in every case is to bring them justice," says Shahram Shayesteh, an attorney at the firm.

by surprise," Shayesteh says. "These are simple things that a lot of lawyers fail to do with their clients."

What attracts clients to the firm is the reputation of its founders, Thomas Girardi and Robert Keese, as well as the firm's successful results throughout the years. The firm's founders have received numerous honors, including Top 100 California's Leading Lawyers, The Best Lawyers in America, California State Bar's "Hall of Fame" and California Law Business "Top 100 Most Influential Attorneys in California," to name a few.

Girardi & Keese has consistently been successful in obtaining numerous large verdicts and settlements. The firm has recovered over $3 billion against large companies such as Pacific Gas & Electric, Merck, Exxon, Shell, DuPont, Ford Motor Company, Farmers Insurance and more. The firm employs trial lawyers who are willing to take the case to trial and obtain the maximum value of the case.

The lawyers at Girardi & Keese believe that there are three keys to successful representation of clients: Listen, learn and advise. Their attorneys listen carefully to their clients, learn about their clients and their case, and advise clients about the progress of their case and all of their options so that they feel they are part of the process. "I listen very carefully to clients because I want them to know I care about what they have to say. I try to learn as much as I can about them, so nothing catches me
