Exceptional lawyers, Exceptional cases, Exceptional clients

EXCEPTIONAL LAWYERS Twiggs, Beskind, Strickland & Rabenau is the No.1 personal injury firm in Raleigh, N.C., as ranked in The Best Lawyers In America. The firm's five senior lawyers have earned the "Best Lawyer" designation. Each of those lawyers has also earned an AV designation from Martindale-Hubbell®. All four TBSR partners are listed in Super Lawyers® in various practice areas. Business North Carolina has recognized partners Don Beskind and Don Strickland as part of the "Legal Elite" in litigation.

EXCEPTIONAL CASES TBSR takes wrongful death and serious injury cases caused by truck and auto wrecks, medical and professional negligence, defective premises and defective products. It also handles significant business torts: unfair and deceptive trade practices, fraud and theft of intellectual property and trade secrets. When other lawyers need TBSR's expertise and resources, they co-counsel with TBSR or refer cases to the firm. TBSR honors those choices by providing exemplary service.

EXCEPTIONAL CLIENTS TBSR's clients are often physically and psychologically devastated and in financial ruin. Those clients need lawyers they can trust, and TBSR's most important goal is earning and preserving that trust. TBSR does more than obtain compensation for its clients—the firm recognizes its clients' challenges and supports their struggles to achieve success despite their injuries.
