Intellectual Property Counsel For Visionaries[®]

With a distinguished 80-year history, Caesar, Rivise, Bernstein, Cohen & Pokotilow, Ltd. is called upon to counsel clients worldwide and to provide the creative solutions and legal strategies necessary to procure, manage and enforce its clients' wide-ranging intellectual property needs. The experience and dedication of the firm's attorneys and staff are exhibited in its focused expertise in the areas of patents, trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets and Internet and computer law. Nowhere is this expertise more evident than its national prominence in the high-powered fields of medicine, medical devices, biotechnology and biotech engineering, chemical engineering, pharmaceuticals and Abbreviated New Drug Application (ANDA) litigation.

Caesar Rivise is proud of its many talented attorneys and is especially honored by the recognition Super Lawyers[®] has bestowed upon this year's recipients.
